Pecker Sound, a long-standing name in high-power sound reinforcement systems of Italian entertainment industry, is a branch of the Sound Corporation holding, a leading group in the professional audio business, which was founded in 1968 and today exports its products to over 30 countries in the world.

The aim of this new line of loudspeaker systems, called FORTY to celebrate the 40th anniversary of the Sound Corporation establishment, is to make available superior class technologies and prestige Italian design at a lower-bracket and, therefore, highly competitive price.

Thanks to the FORTY Series, high-end audio is really within everyone's reach.
